

Recent Advances in Geotechnical and Structural Engineering

TEQIP sponsored short term course conducted by Discipline of Civil Engineering at IIT Indore from March 08 – 10, 2018:

- The short course was held to aware the participants with current advances in both geotechnical and structural engineering from industry perspective to enrich them with the advances and updates in technology.
- A total of 31 candidates actively participated in this short course.

Recent Advances in Geotechnical and Structural Engineering

Sessions in Progress